Subject: Gift Acknowledgement and Receipt ($100 or more)

Thank you for your generous gift of or valued at $_____ to benefit the Jordan High School Band Program. The Jordan Band Boosters are a non profit 501(c)(3) organization with a tax i.d. of 56-212448.

Effective January 1, 1994, federal tax law requires the Jordan High School Band Booster Club to acknowledge your contribution in writing and tell you whether or not goods or services were provided to you in exchange for your contribution. Unless otherwise notified, no goods or services were provided to you in return for this contribution.

On the date of your gift, _____, you contributed $_____ in cash. Of that amount, you may claim $_____ as your income tax deduction.

Please keep this acknowledgement with your tax records. Your charitable deduction may be disallowed if you are unable to provide this acknowledgement to the Internal Revenue Service upon request. As with any tax or financial matter, the Booster Club strongly recommends that you consult your regular tax advisor about the deductibility of your charitable contributions.
